

King's University College at Western University invites applications for a probationary tenure-track appointment in Economics at the rank of Assistant Professor effective July 1, 2022, subject to budgetary approval. We are seeking candidates who will complement our existing strengths in applied macroeconomics. We especially encourage those with expertise in macroeconomics, financial economics, monetary economics, or international economics to apply; however, serious consideration will be given to exceptional candidates in other fields. Candidates should have a Ph.D. in Economics or be near completion. Candidates should offer strong research and publishing ability in Economics with a demonstrated potential for teaching excellence.

Applicants should submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, the names and contact details of three academics willing to write a letter of reference, a teaching portfolio (including teaching evaluations) and all relevant publications, in a single PDF file to jobsearchecon@kings.uwo.ca. The letter of application should be addressed to Dr. Grigori Erenburg, Director, School of Management, Economics, and Mathematics. All material should be sent electronically to the above address; applications will be accepted until the position is filled.

Review of applications will begin November 8, 2021 and continue until the position is filled. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted by telephone to arrange an interview.
