Assistant Professor - Probationary Full-Time Tenure Track

Sociology

The Department of Sociology at King’s University College at Western University, located on the traditional territories of the Haudenosaunee, Anishnaabek, Lenapewak, and Attawandaron peoples, invites applications for a full-time tenure-track appointment (Sociology – Open) at the rank of Assistant Professor to commence July 1, 2020. The area of specialization is open and the successful candidate will be expected to pursue ambitious research and teaching agendas that complement the existing strengths of the Department. King’s University College is a Catholic liberal arts college affiliated with Western University located in London, Ontario. The Sociology Department at King’s University College offers undergraduate programs in Sociology and Criminology. With fourteen faculty, our programs build upon a strong core of sociological and criminological theory and research methods to offer a range of substantive topics and experiential learning opportunities.

Candidates with active teaching and research programs in areas related to decolonization, reconciliation and/or issues for Indigenous communities, which will build upon our emerging programming by settler scholars in these areas, are especially invited to apply.

QUALIFICATIONS
The area of specialization is open and the successful candidate will be expected to pursue ambitious research and teaching agendas that complement the existing strengths of the Department. Applicants should clearly identify how their area of research engages with existing teaching and scholarship within the Department, as well as outline their willingness to teach required introductory, theory, statistics, or methodology courses in our department (Soc 1020; Soc 2240E & 2270A/B and 2271A/B; Soc 2205A/B; and Soc 2206A/B, respectively). We value faculty mentorship of our students and prior mentorship, envisioned broadly, is an asset. The successful candidate must have a Ph.D. in Sociology or related field by the date of the appointment or shortly thereafter.

APPLICATION
Applicants should submit a letter of application; CV; teaching portfolio including sample course syllabus and evidence of teaching effectiveness; statement of research programme, including evidence of active scholarship; and the names and contact information of three references. Applications and confidential letters of references should be submitted to Dr. Kristin Lozanski, Chair, Department of Sociology at jobsearchsoc@kings.uwo.ca. Queries about the position may be sent to kristin.lozanski@uwo.ca.

COMPENSATION
Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.
