

RONDINE, ITALY (SJPS 3211G)

ABOUT SJPS 3211G

For four weeks in the month of May, students have the opportunity to study in Arezzo, Italy to earn credits in Social Justice and Peace Studies and Italian Language and Culture while at the Rondine Centre for Peace. Students complete coursework in Italian conversation and a class in the Ethics of Engaging with Others. In addition to these two courses, students have the opportunity to visit a number of key humanitarian organizations working on the frontlines of the current refugee and migrant crisis.

Highlights include:

- A visit to the newly opened Office of Refugees and Migrants at the Vatican
- The Jesuit Relief Services' welcome centre in Rome, Centro Asistali
- The International Committee of the Red Cross and Caritas

• Rondine, Italy (SJPS 3211G)

- Winter Term, international travel, May, 2020
- For more information contact Dr. Allyson Larkin, alarkin2@uwo.ca
- Application information can be found on the SJPS website
- Financial Aid is available for King's students

ABOUT SJPS

Social Justice and Peace Studies is an interdisciplinary academic program committed to experiential education and inspired by the Catholic Social Teaching tradition. It encourages critical reflection on oppression and injustice, locally and globally, and it examines theoretical and practical approaches to justice and peace. It calls students to social action that transforms the world in the interests of human dignity, equality, sustainability, and peace.