TAMARA BERNARD

TO RECOGNIZE THE NATIONAL DAY OF ACTION FOR MISSING AND MURDERED INDIGENOUS WOMEN AND GIRLS

TUESDAY, OCT. 4TH | 5 - 7 PM

THE FRANK HOLMES THEATRE

Tamara Bernard, an award-winning storyteller, advocate and educator from Kiasheke Zaaging Anishinaabek, has dedicated her life work to social justice for Indigenous peoples, to build pathways to learning for both Indigenous and non-Indigenous audiences, and to be a catalyst for change. For over a decade as owner of Tamara Kwe, Bernard has specialized in anti-violence education, research and consultation for Indigenous gendered trauma-informed practices.

Tamara will be speaking about MMIWG and Violence on Indigenous Womanhood, concluding with a question-and-answer period. Light refreshments will be served outside of the theatre following the talk.
