

Staging Disability: A Playwright's Perspective

with Emil Sher

Monday, January 21

6:30 - 8 p.m.

Joanne and Peter
Kenny Theatre

Emil Sher is the playwright of “The Boy in the Moon”, which is a play that was recently performed at the Grand Theatre. “The Boy in the Moon” was an adaptation of a book written by Ian Brown, which described a family’s journey with a son who has profound disabilities.

Free admission

All welcome