

The Centre for Advanced Research in Catholic Thought presents: Catholicism after Five Years of a Francis Papacy

Keynote speakers:

Dr. Paul Lakeland

Professor, Fairfield University
President-elect,
Catholic Theological Society of America

Rev. Dr. John Markey, OP

Associate Professor,
Oblate School of Theology

With presentations by:

Gill Goulding, CJ - Regis College, University of Toronto
Liam Farrer - Regis College, University of Toronto
Gordon Rixon - Regis College, University of Toronto
Moira McQueen - Canadian Catholic Bioethics Institute, Toronto
Darren Dias OP - St. Michael's College, University of Toronto
Jean-Pierre Fortin - Loyola University, Chicago
Stephen Scharper - University of Toronto

A gathering of scholars to assess the pontificate of Francis after five years and his impact on Catholic life and teaching. Our speakers will address ecology and spirituality, gender, sexuality and marriage, and competing visions of the church in the world.

March 23–24, 2018
Labatt Hall (Friday) and Vitali Lounge (Saturday)
King's University College
266 Epworth Ave.

The Centre for Advanced Research in Catholic Thought

For conference schedule and details: kings.uwo.ca/carct