

Toronto Colloquium on Sex Abuse 2019 - Detailed Schedule

"The Wounded Body of Christ: Listening and Responding to Abuse in the Church"

(All events are free and open to the public)

March 14, 2019 (Thursday) at 7 pm.

A public lecture by Dr. Brian Flanagan, (Marymount University, Virginia): "Believing in a Sinful and Holy Church"

Dr. Flanagan is the author of Stumbling in Holiness: Sin and Sanctity in the Church (Liturgical Press, 2018)

Venue: Muzzo Family Alumni Hall, Room 100, 121 St. Joseph St., Toronto

March 15, 2019 (Friday)

Venue: Charbonnel Lounge, 81 St. Mary Street, Toronto

8.30	Coffee and pastries
9.00	Welcome
9.15	Session I: Voices from Survivors of clerical abuse, with Brian Flanagan as respondent, drawing upon themes from the previous evening's talk
10.30	Break
10.45	Session II: Nuala Kelly, "Diagnosing Spiritual and Ecclesial Pathology Manifested in the Clergy Sexual Abuse Crisis"
12.00	Lunch (lunch available for purchase)

1.30	Session III: Mary Ann Hinsdale, "Clericalism: Roots, Relevance and Remedies"
2.45	Break
3.00 - 3:45	Session IV: Break out sessions with participants, with directed questions
3:45-4:30	Wrap Up Session, with break out sessions reporting back, and overall conclusions about where to move forward

The fourth session may need to be more small groups in the same room, given some of the space limitations.

---