

Award-winning Faculty

Economics

Adian McFarlane (PhD, Manitoba)

Energy consumption and losses; gendered wage disparities; international finance.

History

Graham Broad (PhD, Western)

War and society studies; social memory; contemporary art.

Alison Meek (PhD, Toronto)

Cold War America; American popular culture; media studies; terrorism and extremism; American Foreign Policy.

Robert A. Ventresca (PhD, Toronto; Member of the College of the Royal Society of Canada)

Modern Europe; the Papacy; fascism; ethics, religion and the Holocaust; human rights.

Literature

Claudia Clausius (PhD, Toronto)

Comparative literature; modern drama; critical theory; art and literary studies; history of ideas.

Philosophy

Antonio Calcagno (PhD, Guelph; Member of the College of the Royal Society of Canada)

Medieval/Renaissance thought and contemporary philosophy; relationships between subjectivity, community, and the state.

Stephen Lofts (PhD, Catholic University of Louvain, Belgium)

Contemporary European and Japanese philosophy; the nature of the human, culture, and the construction of subjectivity.

Political Science

John Grant (PhD, London, U.K.)

Contemporary political theory; political imaginaries; dialectical thought; riots and citizens' assemblies.

Religious Studies

Mahdi Tourage: (PhD, Toronto)

Islamic religious thought; gender, sexuality and postmodern theories; social justice and peace.

For more information

King's University College
266 Epworth Avenue
London, ON
N6A 2M3

519-433-3491

1-800-265-4406

kings.uwo.ca/kings-one

kings@uwo.ca

@kingsatwestern kingsatuwo

KING'S

King's One: Urgent Questions

Interdisciplinary Studies 1100E

A place to be. A place to become.

Why KING'S ONE?

KING'S ONE: URGENT QUESTIONS

Uncertain what field you want to specialize in? KING'S ONE is specifically designed to introduce graduating high school students to a variety of disciplines:

- History
- Literature
- Philosophy
- Religious Studies
- Political Science
- Economics

Every month, you study a different discipline, and you learn how a combination of various perspectives helps you understand the world's problems. This team-taught course also acquaints you with King's faculty.

Collegial Classroom Experience

KING'S ONE will bring deep cohesion, collegiality, and camaraderie to each entry class since it draws students from all types of courses into a common experience.

Variety and Diversity

This "sampler" experience combines a wide range of disciplinary perspectives with deep knowledge of an important world issue.

One Question. Many Answers. KING'S ONE.

KING'S ONE: URGENT QUESTIONS

This high-energy course tackles vital contemporary problems such as global conflicts, freedom and tyranny, the difficulties of progress, the accelerated human, state spectacles, etc. through the subject areas of History, Philosophy, Political Science, Economics, Religious Studies, and Literature.

Global Citizenship

A unique experience - A unique environment. With a team of specialists, you will explore an urgent global issue through a multidimensional lens.

Students will become engaged citizens, thinking critically about the state of the world.

Students of the KING'S ONE: URGENT QUESTIONS course who move on into other programs at King's will be able to equip themselves for careers in:

- academia
- business
- communications
- computer science
- culture
- editing
- education
- financial services
- government and politics
- industry
- journalism
- law
- marketing
- media
- medicine
- policy
- private consulting
- public relations
- publishing
- science
- social work
- teaching
- writing

What graduates loved about King's

"The professors are what made King's College so special for me. They are passionate about what they do, and their enthusiasm is infectious. They helped provide me with the knowledge I needed to make use of my English degree."

-Nicole Winstanley, Vice President, Penguin Random House and Publisher, Penguin Canada