

History 3218E

Movers and Shakers: Social Movements in Canadian History

You say you want a revolution?

Come and learn how people of the past made a difference in Canada and how you can do the same.

Movers and Shakers explores the movements, the organizations, and the people who have fought for social and political change throughout Canada's history.

Get to know some of the unique personalities that have shaped Canada's past, showing that Canadians aren't a passive people!

- 1.0 credit (Sept – April)
- Thursdays, 3:30 – 5:30 pm
- Open to all students with 1.0 credit in History at the 2200 level or above

For further information, contact Professor Jennifer Tunnicliffe: jtunnick2@uwo.ca

