Winter Term 2019-2020

HISTORY 4504G
History of Human Rights in Latin America

This course explores the long historical development of human rights discourses, advocacy, and abuses in Latin America. It focuses upon the struggle for justice for, and by, indigenous and African populations and other marginalized groups from contact to the authoritarianism and institutionalized human rights violations of the 20th century.

Tuesday 2:30-5:30 pm