Current Career

Organization: King's University College at Western University

Title: Teaching Assistant

Career Overview

I was a teaching assistant for Dr. Thomas Malleson for the course Social Activism and Theories of Political Change (SJPS 2301B). I was primarily responsible for grading and helping students refine their essay methods to improve the way they convey their opinions. I also worked as an independent contractor as a Legal Assistant at a criminal law firm for six months.

How has SJPS helped prepare you for your current work or helped you get where you are today?

SJPS has allowed me to become well-versed in the social issues that I feel most strongly about. Because of that, I feel as though I am capable of effectively communicating my point of view to others in an informative way.
