

DISABILITY STUDIES – MODULE CHECKLIST

(Revised Jan 2019– effective September 1, 2019)

Major in Disability StudiesAdmission Requirements:

- ☐ Completion of first-year requirements, including Disability Studies 1010A/B Exploring Disability, or the former Interdisciplinary Studies 1010A/B, with a minimum grade of 60%.

Module: (6.0 courses)☐ 1.0 course:

- Disability Studies 2201F/G Rethinking Disability, or the former DS 2201A/B
- Disability Studies 2202A/B Understanding Disability Labels; or the former IS 2246

- ☐ 5.0 courses: To be taken from Groups A and/or B as listed below. Students must take at least 2.5 courses from Group A (Note: students may take and count as many Group A courses as they want, up to the full 5.0.) Students must have at least 1.0 total 3000 level or above courses, of which at least 0.5 must be from Group A.

Group A: Includes any Disability Studies course (including Special topics; excluding 1010A/B, 2201F/G, 2202A/B)

- ☐ At least 2.0 Disability Studies Courses from Level 2000 or above, or Philosophy 2072F/G Bioethics and Disability, or Sociology 3339F/G Disability Cross-Culturally:

- ☐ At least 0.5 Disability Studies course(s) from level 3000 or above

Group B: Courses from approved list below or others by special permission of DS Coordinator.

*Students can always substitute additional Group A (DS) credits in place of Group B

- ☐ Maximum of 2.0 total courses from the Approved List

- ☐ 0.5 course at the 3000 level or above from the approved list if the student only has 0.5 3000 level from Group A

DISABILITY STUDIES MAJOR “GROUP B” APPROVED COURSE LIST

Childhood and Social Institutions 2210F/G Childhood & Public Policy
 Childhood and Social Institutions 3300F/G Childhood, Citizenship, and Participation
 Childhood and Social Institutions 3364F/G Childhood & Governmentality, or the former CSI 3360F/G
 History of Science 2220 Introduction to the History of Medicine
 Interdisciplinary Studies 2252F/G Introduction to Interdisciplinary Qualitative Research Methods
 Philosophy 2203E History of Scientific Thought
 Philosophy 2208E *Social and Political Thought
 Political Science 3307F/G Politics and Contemporary Social Policy (or the former Poli Sci 3309E)
 Political Science 3312F/G Protest: Politics from Below
 Psychology 3310F/G Adult Psychopathology
 Psychology 3311 Abnormal Psychology
 Psychology 3320F/G Child Psychopathology
 Psychology 3725F/G The Psychology of Prejudice
 Psychology 4303F/G Mental Health and Deafness
 Sociology 2206A/B Research Methods for Sociology, or Social Work 2206 A/B Research Methods for Social Work
 Sociology 2245 Medical Sociology
 Sociology 3304F/G The Experience of Health and Illness
 Sociology 3305F/G The Management of Health and Illness
 Sociology 3371F/G Global Health and Human Rights
 Social Work 2214A/B Intro to Social Work Practice
 Social Work 3344A/B Social Justice and Social Work: Examining Issues of Oppression, Inclusion and Diversity
 Thanatology 2225A/B Topical Issues in Thanatology, or the former Thanatology 2200
 Thanatology 2230A/B Principles of Palliative Care
 Thanatology 2234A/B Change, Transition and Loss
 Thanatology 3355A/B Ethical Issues in Death, Dying, and Bereavement
 Women's Studies 2223F/G Gender, Sexuality and Disability
 *See Program Advisor in Academic Dean's Office for special permission to count Phil 2208E

DISABILITY STUDIES – MODULE CHECKLISTMinor in Disability Studies*Admission Requirements:

- ☐ Completion of first-year requirements, including Disability Studies 1010A/B Exploring Disability, or the former Interdisciplinary Studies 1010A/B, with a minimum grade of 60%.

Module: (4.0 courses)☐ 1.0 course:

- Disability Studies 2201F/G Rethinking Disability, or the former DS 2201A/B
- Disability Studies 2202A/B Understanding Disability Labels; or the former IS 2246

- ☐ 3.0 courses: To be taken from Groups A and/or B as listed below. Students must take at least 1.5 courses from Group A, and up to a maximum of 1.5 from group B. (Note: students may take and count as many group A courses as they want, up to the full 3.0).

Group A: Includes any Disability Studies courses (including Special topics; excluding 1010A/B, 2201F/G, 2202A/B)

- ☐ At least 1.5 Disability Studies courses from level 2000 or above, Philosophy 2072F/G Bioethics and Disability, or Sociology 3339F/G Disability Cross-Culturally:

Group B: Courses in approved list below or others by special permission of DS Coordinator.

- ☐ A maximum of 1.5 courses from the Approved List:

*Note: Students can always substitute additional Group A (DS) courses in place of Group B ones

DISABILITY STUDIES MINOR “GROUP B” APPROVED COURSE LIST:

Childhood and Social Institutions 2210F/G Childhood & Public Policy
 Childhood and Social Institutions 3300F/G Childhood, Citizenship, and Participation
 Childhood and Social Institutions 3364F/G Childhood & Governmentality, or the former CSI 3360F/G
 History of Science 2220 Introduction to the History of Medicine
 Interdisciplinary Studies 2252F/G Introduction to Interdisciplinary Qualitative Research Methods
 Philosophy 2203E History of Scientific Thought
 Philosophy 2208E *Social and Political Thought
 Political Science 3307F/G Politics and Contemporary Social Policy (or the former Poli Sci 3309E)
 Political Science 3312F/G Protest: Politics from Below
 Psychology 3310F/G Adult Psychopathology
 Psychology 3311 Abnormal Psychology
 Psychology 3320F/G Child Psychopathology
 Psychology 3725F/G The Psychology of Prejudice
 Psychology 4303F/G Mental Health and Deafness
 Sociology 2206A/B Research Methods for Sociology, or Social Work 2206 A/B Research Methods for Social Work
 Sociology 2245 Medical Sociology
 Sociology 3304F/G The Experience of Health and Illness
 Sociology 3305F/G The Management of Health and Illness
 Sociology 3371F/G Global Health and Human Rights
 Social Work 2214A/B Intro to Social Work Practice
 Social Work 3344A/B Social Justice and Social Work: Examining Issues of Oppression, Inclusion and Diversity
 Thanatology 2225A/B Topical Issues in Thanatology, or the former Thanatology 2200
 Thanatology 2230A/B Principles of Palliative Care
 Thanatology 2234A/B Change, Transition and Loss
 Thanatology 3355A/B Ethical Issues in Death, Dying, and Bereavement
 Women's Studies 2223F/G Gender, Sexuality and Disability

*See Program Advisor in Academic Dean's Office for special permission to count Phil 2208E