

DISABILITY STUDIES – MODULE CHECKLIST

(effective September 1, 2021)

Major in Disability StudiesAdmission Requirements:

- ☐ Completion of first-year requirements, including Disability Studies 1010A/B Exploring Disability, or the former Interdisciplinary Studies 1010A/B, with a minimum grade of 60%.

Module: (6.0 courses)

- ☐ 1.0 course:
- Disability Studies 2201F/G Rethinking Disability, or the former DS 2201A/B
 - Disability Studies 2202A/B Understanding Disability Labels; or the former IS 2246
- ☐ 0.5 from: Disability Studies 2272F/G, Disability Studies 2214A/B, Disability Studies 2224A/B, Interdisciplinary Studies 2252F/G
- ☐ 0.5 from: Disability Studies 3311F/G, Disability Studies 3312F/G, Disability Studies 3325F/G, Disability Studies 3326F/G
- ☐ 4.0 courses: from Groups A and/or B as listed below. Students must take at least 1.5 courses from Group A (Note: students may take and count additional Group A courses in place of Group B, up to the full 4.0.)
- ☐ Students must complete a total of 1.0 course at the 3000 level or above.

Group A:Includes any Disability Studies course at the 2000 level or above

- ☐ At least 1.5 Disability Studies Courses:

Group B:Courses from approved list below or others by special permission of DS Coordinator.

* Students can substitute additional Group A (DS) courses in place of Group B

- ☐ Maximum of 2.0 courses from the Approved List at the 2000 level or above

- ☐ 0.5 course at the 3000 level from the approved list if the student only has 0.5 3000 level from Group A

DISABILITY STUDIES MAJOR “GROUP B” APPROVED COURSE LIST

Childhood and Social Institutions 2210F/G Childhood & Public Policy
 Childhood and Social Institutions 3300F/G Childhood, Citizenship, and Participation
 Childhood and Social Institutions 3364F/G Childhood & Governmentality, or the former CSI 3360F/G
 History of Science 2220 Introduction to the History of Medicine
 Interdisciplinary Studies 2252F/G Introduction to Interdisciplinary Qualitative Research Methods
 Philosophy 2203E History of Scientific Thought
 Philosophy 2208E Social and Political Thought
 Political Science 3307F/G Politics and Contemporary Social Policy (or the former Poli Sci 3309E)
 Political Science 3312F/G Protest: Politics from Below
 Psychology 3310F/G Adult Psychopathology
 Psychology 3311 Abnormal Psychology
 Psychology 3320F/G Child Psychopathology
 Psychology 3725F/G The Psychology of Prejudice
 Psychology 4303F/G Mental Health and Deafness
 Sociology 2206A/B Research Methods for Sociology, or Social Work 2206 A/B Research Methods for Social Work
 Sociology 2245 Medical Sociology
 Sociology 3304F/G The Experience of Health and Illness
 Sociology 3305F/G The Management of Health and Illness
 Sociology 3371F/G Global Health and Human Rights
 Social Work 2216A/B Intro to Social Work Practice and Theories
 Social Work 3344A/B Social Justice and Social Work: Examining Issues of Oppression, Inclusion and Diversity
 Thanatology 2225A/B Topical Issues in Thanatology, or the former Thanatology 2200
 Thanatology 2230A/B Principles of Palliative Care
 Thanatology 2234A/B Change, Transition and Loss
 Thanatology 3355A/B Ethical Issues in Death, Dying, and Bereavement
 Women's Studies 2223F/G Gender, Sexuality and Disability

DISABILITY STUDIES – MODULE CHECKLISTMinor in Disability Studies*Admission Requirements:

- ☐ Completion of first-year requirements, including Disability Studies 1010A/B Exploring Disability, or the former Interdisciplinary Studies 1010A/B, with a minimum grade of 60%.

Module: (4.0 courses)☐ 1.0 course:

- Disability Studies 2201F/G Rethinking Disability, or the former DS 2201A/B
- Disability Studies 2202A/B Understanding Disability Labels; or the former IS 2246

- ☐ 3.0 courses: To be taken from Groups A and/or B as listed below. Students must take at least 1.5 courses from Group A, and up to a maximum of 1.5 from group B. (Note: students may take and count as many group A courses as they want, up to the full 3.0).

Group A: Includes any Disability Studies courses (including Special topics; excluding 1010A/B, 2201F/G, 2202A/B)

- ☐ At least 1.5 Disability Studies courses from level 2000 or above.

Group B: Courses in approved list below or others by special permission of DS Coordinator.

- ☐ A maximum of 1.5 courses from the Approved List:

*Note: Students can substitute additional Group A (DS) courses in place of Group B ones

DISABILITY STUDIES MINOR “GROUP B” APPROVED COURSE LIST:

Childhood and Social Institutions 2210F/G Childhood & Public Policy
 Childhood and Social Institutions 3300F/G Childhood, Citizenship, and Participation
 Childhood and Social Institutions 3364F/G Childhood & Governmentality, or the former CSI 3360F/G
 History of Science 2220 Introduction to the History of Medicine
 Interdisciplinary Studies 2252F/G Introduction to Interdisciplinary Qualitative Research Methods
 Philosophy 2203E History of Scientific Thought
 Philosophy 2208E Social and Political Thought
 Political Science 3307F/G Politics and Contemporary Social Policy (or the former Poli Sci 3309E)
 Political Science 3312F/G Protest: Politics from Below
 Psychology 3310F/G Adult Psychopathology
 Psychology 3311 Abnormal Psychology
 Psychology 3320F/G Child Psychopathology
 Psychology 3725F/G The Psychology of Prejudice
 Psychology 4303F/G Mental Health and Deafness
 Sociology 2206A/B Research Methods for Sociology, or Social Work 2206 A/B Research Methods for Social Work
 Sociology 2245 Medical Sociology
 Sociology 3304F/G The Experience of Health and Illness
 Sociology 3305F/G The Management of Health and Illness
 Sociology 3371F/G Global Health and Human Rights
 Social Work 2216A/B Intro to Social Work Practice & Theories
 Social Work 3344A/B Social Justice and Social Work: Examining Issues of Oppression, Inclusion and Diversity
 Thanatology 2225A/B Topical Issues in Thanatology, or the former Thanatology 2200
 Thanatology 2230A/B Principles of Palliative Care
 Thanatology 2234A/B Change, Transition and Loss
 Thanatology 3355A/B Ethical Issues in Death, Dying, and Bereavement
 Women's Studies 2223F/G Gender, Sexuality and Disability