Cellblock Visions: Prison Art in America with Phyllis Kornfeld

Wednesday, February 28
3:30 p.m.

Joanne and Peter Kenny Theatre
King's University College
266 Epworth Avenue, London

Phyllis Kornfeld has been working with incarcerated men and women for 35 years—in all levels of security, county jail to death row, all around the United States—providing the transformative experience of creating beautiful art. She is the author of “Cellblock Visions: Prison Art in America” which presents powerful art created by people she has worked with.
