

GLOBAL NETWORKS FOR JUSTICE: BORDERS, MIGRATION AND VIOLENCE

Winter Term, 2018

Dr. Ben Muller: bmuller@uwo.ca & Dr. Allyson Larkin: alarkin2@uwo.ca

SJPS 3211G

A unique, overseas seminar, taught in collaboration with the Italian Studies program at Western University. Students will examine key issues related to contemporary migration and refugee and border challenges, with a specific focus on the current crises in Europe and the Mediterranean. Rondine Centre for Peace is a non-profit that works with youth from conflict regions to develop strategies for peace and reconciliation.

Students will spend May 2018 in Italy.

Highlights:

- A month-long residency at the Rondine Centre for Peace in Arezzo, Italy
- ITAL 1045B – Introduction to Italian Language and Culture
- Visit NGOs and civil society organizations including:
  - International Red Cross
  - Jesuit Relief Services
  - Vatican Office for Migrants and Refugees
  - Community of Sant'Egidio
  - cultural excursions to Rome and other sites
  - 1.0 credit course (SJPS 3211G + ITAL 1045B)

This international experiential learning program is a unique opportunity for students who are interested in international development, humanitarian or related fields. Limited enrolment. Financial aid is available for King's students.

