

September 13, 2021

King's to host Federal Election Debate for London North Centre

London, Ontario – The King's Political Science Students Association (KPSSA) invites you to attend a 2021 Federal Election Debate with the candidates of London North Centre on Tuesday, September 14, 2021, at 6 p.m. A limited number of students will attend the debate in-person in the Joanne and Peter Kenny Theatre. The debate will be live streamed for all to view.

Participating candidates include:

- Liberal: Peter Fragiskatos
- NDP: Dirka Prout
- Green Party: Mary Ann Hodge

More information, including the live stream link when it becomes available, can be found on the King's events calendar.

About King's University College

King's is a public Catholic University College which provides general and honors degree programs in the liberal arts, social sciences, management, and a master's degree in social work. It is positioned in the top rank of institutions of higher learning in Canada for the high quality of its teaching faculty and student experience. Institutionally autonomous, King's is academically affiliated with Western University, and King's graduates receive a Western University degree. King's is open to students of all faith backgrounds, with its community centred on the values of social justice, equality and the education of the whole person.

Learn more about King's University College at www.kings.uwo.ca.

For media interviews, contact:

Jane Antoniak

Director, Communications & Media Relations

King's University College

266 Epworth Ave.

London, ON

communications@kings.uwo.ca

519-719-9366

@kingsatwestern

www.kings.uwo.ca