

King's University College Chamber Choir Concert: Songs for a Winter's Night

December 1, 2017

London ON – King's University College welcomes everyone to a 60-minute vocal performance by the King's University College Chamber Choir featuring instrumental accompaniment. It will be held on Saturday, December 2, 2017 at 7:30 p.m. at 'The Chapel' at Windermere on the Mount, 1486 Richmond Street, London.

Songs for a Winter's Night features music written by Canadian composers which celebrates the joy of Christmas and the magic of the winter season. This event features Snow Angel by London's Sarah Quartel.

Admission is by freewill donation. Proceeds will be directed to the Christ the King University Parish Refugee Initiative. This initiative raises funds in order to sponsor refugees. To date, King's Campus Ministry has provided support to dozens of refugees.

King's University College Chamber Choir won "Best Classical Choir" in the 2016 Jack Richardson Music Awards. The Choir is led by Conductor and Artistic Director Janet Loo.

King's is a publicly-funded Catholic post-secondary institution founded in 1954. King's provides general and honors degree programs in the liberal arts, social sciences, business, and a master's degree in social work. It is positioned in the top rank of institutions of higher learning in Canada for the high quality of its teaching faculty and student experience. Institutionally-autonomous, King's is academically-affiliated with Western University. King's is open to students of all faith backgrounds, with its community centered on the values of social justice, equality and the education of the whole person.

For more information, please contact:

Jane Antoniak
Manager, Communications & Media Relations
King's University College
Jane.antoniak@kings.uwo.ca
@kingsatwestern
519-433-3491 ext. 4384
www.kings.uwo.ca