

King's Hour with Dr. Nonie Brennan - "Building Effective Nonprofits through Leadership, Relationships, and Collaboration."

March 22, 2017

London ON – King's University College welcomes King's alumna Dr. Nonie Brennan '84, BA in English, for this month's edition of King's Hour on March 22, 2017. Dr. Brennan currently serves as the Chief Executive of All Chicago, which combines immediate resources with long-term strategies to address the complex issue of homelessness. A visionary leader, Dr. Brennan utilizes a mission-focused approach to take organizations to the next level. Her achievements include successfully navigating organization mergers and consolidations, significantly increasing fund revenue, and building effective collaborations.

Dr. Brennan will share her insights on the key elements of nonprofit work. Using examples, Dr. Brennan will detail how leadership, relationships, and collaborations can amplify impact.

King's Hour is a series of culturally and academically engaging lectures, discussions or performances of common interest to the entire King's community.

King's Hour will take place in the Joanne and Peter Kenny Theatre, located in the Darryl J. King Student Life Centre, 266 Epworth Ave, London, ON. The talk will start at 3:30pm and end at 4:20pm. Parking for media is available in Lot 1, on the north side of Epworth Avenue.

King's is a publicly-funded Catholic post-secondary institution founded in 1954. King's provides general and honors degree programs in the liberal arts, social sciences, business, and a master's degree in social work. It is positioned in the top rank of institutions of higher learning in Canada for the high quality of its teaching faculty and student experience. Institutionally-autonomous, King's is academically-affiliated with Western University. King's is open to students of all faith backgrounds, with its community centered on the values of social justice, equality and the education of the whole person.
