March 9, 2017

London, ON- King's will open its campus to future students, their families and friends on Friday, March 10, 6 p.m. – 9 p.m. and on Saturday, March 11, 1 p.m. – 4 p.m. for our annual March Break Open House. The event headquarters is in the Darryl J. King Student Life Centre. King's faculty, staff and students will be on hand to answer questions about academic programs and support services, and to provide insight into the "King's student experience." Campus tours, led by King's students, mini-lectures and displays of academic programs, residence, student services and financial support will make this a one-stop event for full details on admission to King's.

We will be welcoming hundreds of future students to King's, where they can tour residences, classrooms and get a taste of student living. King's offers smaller and interactive classes that are taught by world-renowned faculty members who are invested in their student's success. Students get the benefits of a small, tight-knit community at King's while still having access to a large world-class university, where they earn a Western degree.

King's offers a range of excellent degree programs in the Arts, Social Sciences, Management and Social Work. Specialized programs in Childhood and Social Institutions, Disabilities, Finance, Global Commerce, Grief and Bereavement, and Social Justice and Peace Studies indicate the range of possibilities available to students at King's.
