

King's Campus Green Up

April 20, 2017

London, ON – King's University College is celebrating Earth Day early with King's Campus Green Up on Friday April 21, 2017. All are welcome to help tidy up the campus on Friday April 21, 2017 at 10 a.m. in front of Wemple building on 266 Epworth Ave, London. The event goes until 11 a.m. but even a few minutes of help from the community will go a long way.

Bring your reusable mug to enjoy some hot chocolate, which Aramark Food Services will be donating for the event. King's Physical Plant department is providing trash bags and gloves. The event is organized by The Green Team at King's which is comprised of staff and faculty.

Care for the environment is a pillar of King's values. The university also has solar power generating panels and a Silver LEED certified Student Life Centre. As well, King's is home to the endangered Chimney Swift.

King's is a publicly-funded Catholic post-secondary institution founded in 1954. King's provides general and honours degree programs in the liberal arts, social sciences, business, and a master's degree in social work. It is positioned in the top rank of institutions of higher learning in Canada for the high quality of its teaching faculty and student experience. Institutionally-autonomous, King's is academically-affiliated with Western University. King's is open to students of all faith backgrounds, with its community centered on the values of social justice, equality and the education of the whole person.
