

King's Open House for future students this weekend

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – March 10, 2015

London, ON- King's welcomes future students, families and friends to campus for its annual spring open house on Friday, March 13, 6 p.m. – 9 p.m. and on Saturday, March 14, 1 p.m. – 4 p.m. The event will be held in the Darryl J. King Student Life Centre. King's faculty, staff and students will be on hand to answer questions about academic programs and support services as well as provide an insight into the "King's student experience." Campus tours, led by King's students, mini-lectures and displays will also be available.

"At King's we offer small, interactive classes taught by outstanding faculty who are accessible to students both inside and outside the classroom. Our students love the friendly, tight-knit community at King's while enjoying a large world-class university and earning a Western degree. King's students experience the "best of both worlds," says Marilyn Mason, Vice-Principal, Enrolment Services and Strategic Partnerships.

King's offers a range of excellent degree programs in the Arts, Social Sciences, Management and Social Work. Specialized programs in Childhood and Social Institutions, Disabilities, Finance, Global Commerce, Grief and Bereavement and Social Justice and Peace Studies indicate the range of possibilities available at King's.

King's students are both local and global leaders and are committed to making a difference in both their communities and careers. Since King's asks its students to "Get Connected-Make a Difference," guests will be encouraged to learn about King's by participating in a trivia game. At each Open House, participants in the trivia game will be eligible to win a GoPro Hero Waterproof HD sports and helmet camera.
