

King's welcomes youth to YOU Community Resource Fair

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – August 20, 2014

King's is pleased to be home base this week for the Summer Jobs For Youth program via Youth Opportunities Unlimited (YOU).

This week YOU held, at King's, their Post-Employment workshops for 250 youth. The program helps disadvantaged youth in London aged 15-18 gain work experience with a 6-week placement program. YOU also provides employment and life skills training. The program is funded by the Government of Ontario and operated by YOU. King's provides space for the workshops.

All youth aged 15-19 are invited to King's on Thursday August 21st, 10 a.m. – noon for a community resource fair in the Darryl J. King Student Life Centre. More than 35 exhibitors ranging from post-secondary institutions, non-profit organizations, youth empowerment organizations and community health groups will be participating.
