

Clash of Cultures & Pathways to Peace

for University Students

Program

The focus of this year's Global Institute - "Clash of Cultures and Pathways to Peace" provides students an opportunity to examine and discuss the complex issues of cultural and religious conflict as well as the necessity of creating pathways to peace within the context of the present and the past.

Inclusions

- Airport transfer: pickup and return from Toronto (only available for groups)
- Health Insurance
- Food and Residence Accommodation (Double Room)
- Day Excursions to Niagara Falls, Toronto's Canada's Wonderland & Lake Huron
- Daily activities and excursions
- Email and Internet Access
- Fitness Gym Facilities

Learning Components

A series of lectures by four faculty experts:

- Dr. J.K. Kato, Associate Professor, Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies
- Dr. P. Ryan, Associate Professor, Department of Interdisciplinary Studies - Childhood and Social Studies
- Dr. T. Tiekou, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science and Coordinator
- Dr. R. Ventresca, Associate Professor, Department of History

King's will provide documentation of the program for credit appraisal to partner universities for student records.

Cost

$2000

Universities who send more than 15 students will be extended a complimentary program (exclusive of airfare) to a faculty member or administrator.

King's University College
266 Epworth Ave,
London, ON
N6A 2M3 | Canada
kings@uwo.ca

