Residence Staff

The Residence Assistant or House Coordinator in each residence unit is a vital resource in helping you make a successful transition to university life. RAs offer support and guidance, share information about campus resources, and monitor residence standards and guidelines.

What are your academic expectations? Are there learning skills areas that you may need to improve to be successful?

Is there a need for life-skill development in some areas? (laundry, basic cooking, banking, time management, etc.)

What transitional issues might you or family members face? How will those issues be resolved or supported?

Is everyone clear about the financial aspects of this transition – anticipated costs, access to financial assistance programs (OSAP, bursaries, scholarships), work study programs, register for courses, complete the FAFSA, access to emergency funds, the implications of credit history?

Are the necessary home insurance and health coverage updates in place? Residents are advised to insure their personal property. King’s does not provide this individual coverage.

Preparing for residence life is important to students and their families. Consider the following as you work together to get ready for this life transition:

- Room Styles:
  - Townhouse
  - Alumni Court
  - Wemple Hall
  - Upper-Year Housing
