“So, brothers, select from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Spirit and wisdom, whom we will put in charge of this need. But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word.”

And the statement pleased the whole group, and they chose Stephen (a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit), and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus (a convert from Antioch), whom they stood before the apostles. And they prayed and placed their hands on them.”

Acts 6:3-6

Congratulations and the assurance of our prayers are extended to Deacon Victor Salazar, as he and his family mark his Ordination as Deacon.

May your life be a living witness to the gospel which you profess.

Please join us after the 11:00 AM Eucharist in the PARISH HALL for a light reception.

FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING: Our parish patronal feast will be celebrated on Sunday November 26, 2017 at 11:00 a.m. Please note that there will not be a 5:00 p.m. liturgy at King’s that afternoon. Bishop R.P. Fabbro, CSB will be the presider. To commemorate this Feast, the children in the Sunday Children’s Program will lead the procession into the Chapel. If your children wish to participate, please have them arrive at 10:30 a.m. so that they might prepare for their special role. Please contact Ali Neves at ali.neves@kings.uwo.ca with any questions.

PASTORAL COUNSELLING: Deacon Jim Panchaud, MSW is open to receiving individuals and couples from our faith community and members of the wider community for Pastoral Counselling. If you would like to setup an appointment to see him, please contact him by phone at 519.963.1477 or by e-mail at jim.panchaud@kings.uwo.ca. There are no fees for this service.

SHOP NO FURTHER: Arctic Visions 2018 calendars will be on sale in the parish in the coming weeks for $20. Proceeds from the sale of the calendar support our partner, Our Lady of Victory Parish, Inuvik, NT and the Roman Catholic missions of the Western Canadian Arctic Region of the Mackenzie-Ft. Smith Diocese.

REFUGEE UPDATE: You may remember that two years ago, we welcomed Saifan, his wife Talar and their son Zenos. Talar and Saifan welcomed a baby girl on the evening of October 11, 2017. Talar's father, mother, sister and brother arrived in Canada on October 25, 2017. It has been a long and arduous task to get them here. The father was shot trying to flee Syria and without the ability to work, we have been supporting the family for two years, as they have waited in Lebanon. As a result, we have spent just over $60,000 in providing food, housing and medical care. Our funds are now depleted. Now that they have arrived, we will need to assist them in getting established. They will also need to repay the government for the cost of their flights from Lebanon to Canada. Might you consider supporting our Refugee Sponsorship Initiative one more time? Cheques are payable to Christ the King University Parish.

REGISTRATION/ ENVELOPES/AUTOMATIC WITHDRAWAL: We try to make sure that our databases are updated regularly, but in a community such as ours, people are always coming and going. If you have moved, please let us know so that we can update our records. If you are attending our community and would like to register, please contact the office for a registration form. If you would like to register for automatic withdrawal, we will gladly accept your generosity. For more information, please contact Lisa Caeiro at lisa.caeiro@kings.uwo.ca or call 519-963-1477.
ST. JOSEPH’S HOSPITALITY CENTRE

Our next outreach to the community at St. Joseph Hospitality Centre will be on Saturday, November 11, 2017. Volunteers are needed 5:00 - 7:00 pm or 7:00 - 9:00 pm. Donations of healthy snacks, baked goods (store bought or home baked), sandwiches, cheese and fruit are needed. Annette Donovan Panchaud coordinates this outreach. To register or for more information, please contact Annette at 519.963.1477 or at annette.donovanpanchaud@kings.uwo.ca. May the good work that we have done, through the grace of God, be brought to fulfillment.

STEP INTO CHRISTMAS is our Christmas initiative in conjunction with our outreach program at the St. Joseph’s Hospitality Centre. We invite you to fill shoeboxes with socks, gloves, hats, toiletries and other items for those who are in need. These boxes will be distributed to people during our December visit at the St. Joseph’s Hospitality Centre. Unwrapped shoeboxes can be left at St. Joseph’s altar between now and December 1, 2017.

ANNUAL CHRIST THE KING LECTURE
VERITAS SERIES FOR FAITH AND CULTURE
Thursday, November 23, 2017, 7:30 pm, Kenny Theatre
Rory Cooney
FREE / ACCESSIBLE

In an era of deconstruction of art, sacred music in many churches has taken particularly hard hit. When looking for an explanation, many have taken to blaming the medium for obscuring and even subverting its purpose, that is, communal worship. This talk will explore, through musical experience, a different perspective with a more hopeful outlook: that communal singing in church is both an instrument and a sacrament of conversion, and creates in action an image of the body of Christ.

Rory Cooney has been Director of Liturgy and Music Ministries at St. Anne Catholic Community in Illinois since 1994. From 1985 through 2014, he served as a team member with the North American Forum on the Catechumenate throughout the US, Canada, England, and Ireland, empowering ministers to grasp the vision of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. Rory’s compositions, written over five decades since 1971, appear in hymnals and worship aids of Roman Catholic, Presbyterian, Lutheran, and Mennonite communities. He was the 2014 recipient of the Pastoral Musician of the Year award from the National Association of Pastoral Musicians (US). His articles have appeared in Pastoral Music and other periodicals.

KING'S CHAMBER CHOIR CHRISTMAS CONCERT: The King's University College Chamber Choir will perform their Christmas concert, entitled “Songs for a Winter’s Night” on Saturday, December 2, 2017 at 7:30 pm in ‘The Chapel’ at Windermere on the Mount. The concert will put the spotlight on songs written or arranged by Canadian composers and will feature Snow Angel by London’s own Sarah Quartel. Admission is by freewill donation, with proceeds going toward the Christ the King University Parish refugee sponsorship initiative. For more information, call 519-963-1477 or visit www.kings.uwo.ca/kuccc.

“Christian, remember your dignity, and now that you share in God’s own nature, do not return by sin to your former base condition. Bear in mind who is your head and of whose body you are a member. Do not forget that you have been rescued from the power of darkness and brought into the light of God’s kingdom.

Through the sacrament of baptism you have become a temple of the Holy Spirit. Do not drive away so great a guest by evil conduct and become again a slave to the devil, for your liberty was bought by the blood of Christ.”

Magisterra Soloists present a Remembrance Day concert of elegiac works for strings, in collaboration with special guests, shakuhachi (Japanese bamboo flute) player Charles Davidson, and singers Sophie Roland, Margie Bernal, and Carmen Specht. The concert takes place on Saturday, November 11, 2017 at 7:30 pm in ‘The Chapel’ at Windermere on the Mount. Tickets may be purchased at the door or online at www.eventbrite.com.

The place where we gather for worship and mission is situated on the traditional territories of the Anishinaabeg, Haudenosaunee, Lunaapeewak and Attawandaron peoples who have longstanding relationships to the land and region of southwestern Ontario and the City of London.
