O God, we thank you for this earth, our home;
for the wide sky and the blessed sun,
for the salt sea and the running water,
for the everlasting hills
and the never-resting winds,
for trees and the common grass underfoot.
We thank you for our senses
by which we hear the songs of birds,
and see the splendor of the summer fields,
and taste of the autumn fruits,
and rejoice in the feel of the snow,
and smell the breath of the spring.
Grant us a heart wide open to all this beauty;
and save our souls from being so blind
that we pass unseeing
when even the common thornbush
is aflame with your glory,
O God our creator,
who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

CONGRATULATIONS are extended to Dylan, son of Ingo and Karen Klug, as he celebrates his baptism with us today and to Mia, daughter of Ingo and Karen Klug, who becomes a member of Christ's Body through her sharing in baptism, confirmation and the eucharist today. We pray Dylan and Mia grow in the wisdom and knowledge of the Lord and that their families provide them with a witness of God's love throughout their lives.

READING WEEK AND PROGRAMMING: Please note that Reading Week falls between October 9 and 13, 2017. During this time, Campus Ministry’s regular programming will be suspended. These include Daily Eucharist, Morning Prayer, Development and Peace. The Holy Longing group will be meeting as scheduled. There will be no 5:00 pm celebration of the Eucharist on October 8 and 15.

REFUGEE UPDATE: You may remember that two years ago, we welcomed Saifan, his wife Talar and their son Zenos. Talar is expecting and this fall, the family will welcome a daughter into their home. We received word this week that Talar's father, mother, sister and brother will arrive in Canada on October 25, 2017. It has been a long and arduous task to get them here. The father was shot trying to flee Syria and without the ability to work, we have been supporting the family for two years, as they have waited in Lebanon. As a result, we have spent just over $60,000 in providing food, housing and medical care. Our funds are now depleted. Once they arrive, we will need to assist them in getting established. They will also need to repay the government for the cost of their flights from Lebanon to Canada. Might you consider supporting our Refugee Sponsorship Initiative one more time? Cheques are payable to Christ the King University Parish. We are in need of a kitchen table and chair set and two single beds and dressers. Should you have any of these please contact the office at 519-963-1477.

ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE DIOCESE OF LONDON:

Victor Hugo Salazar Carvajal has petitioned to be ordained as a deacon. Bishop Ronald P. Fabbro, CSB. has accepted his petition and intends to ordain Victor Salazar to the diaconate on November 4, 2017, at St. Peter’s Cathedral Basilica, London, Ontario. If you are aware of anything which would prevent this Candidate from proceeding toward ordination on November 4, 2017, you are obligated to make this known to the appropriate authorities. Please continue to pray for Victor Salazar as he prepares for ordination.

Victor had to flee Columbia a number of years ago and for his own safety is not able to return home. We are grateful that we will welcome his family from Columbia here for his ordination. A reception to celebrate this event in their lives will take place on November 5, 2017, following the 11:00 am Eucharist. If you would like to prepare some food to share with the community, please contact annette.donovanpanchaud@kings.uwo.ca. All are welcome.
What is the fate of liturgical music amid new media and individualized worship practices? This lecture will address this conversation within the emerging interdisciplinary academic inquiry of Media and Religion. How might we rethink our approach to liturgical music in a 2.0 world?

Rev. Ricky Manalo, CSP, PhD. is a Paulist priest and a liturgical composer, currently teaching at Santa Clara University. He also serves as the main facilitator of the Cultural Orientation Program for International Ministers/Priests (COPIM) of Loyola Marymount University. He studied composition and piano at the Manhattan School of Music, theology at the Washington Theological Union, and liturgy, culture, and sociology at the Graduate Theological Union (GTU), Berkeley, CA. Fr. Manalo’s music is published chiefly by Oregon Catholic Press. Currently, Fr. Manalo is a member of a USCCB steering committee which is creating a national pastoral plan for U.S. Asian Pacific.

The Transformation of Self Through Sacrifice: When Jesus instituted the Eucharist at the Last Supper, the words he chose clearly indicated he wanted to leave the Church a means of offering sacrifice until his return in glory. Why is sacrifice necessary in God’s plan of salvation for us? What effect does the offering of sacrifice have on our pursuit of holiness? Drawing from St. Thomas Aquinas’ notion of the ecstatic nature of love, and from others, Eucharistic ekstasis will explore these questions and offer suggestions for reflection on what we are doing when we celebrate the Eucharist. This lecture is being offered by Father Alan Momney at St. Peter’s Seminary on Wednesday, October 18, 2017 at 7:30 pm. All are welcome.

The place where we gather for worship and mission is situated on the traditional territories of the Anishinaabeg, Haudenosaunee, Lunaapeewak and Attawandaron peoples who have longstanding relationships to the land and region of southwestern Ontario and the City of London.
