For the consecration of Christ is the greater consecration of another element. For when the Savior is washed, then already for our baptism all water is cleansed and the fount purified, that the grace of the laver may be administered to the peoples that come after. Christ therefore takes the lead in baptism, so that Christian peoples may follow after him with confidence.

This will take place on Wednesday, January 23, 2019 at 7:30 PM at St. Paul’s Cathedral (472 Richmond Street). The theme given by the World Council of Churches this year is “Justice, and only justice, you shall pursue,” inspired by Deuteronomy 16:18-20. Annette Donovan Panchaud will offer the reflection and our parish choir will lead the music at the prayer. A time of fellowship over refreshments will follow.
IN MEMORY: Please remember in your prayers Vito Buragina, father of Connie and Larry Sanders, who passed away on Monday, January 7, 2019. May Vito know the fullness of life in God's presence and may those who mourn his death find hope in the promise of resurrection.

JUSTICE GENERATION is a weekend experience for post-secondary students that will deepen their understanding of Catholic Social Teaching and their own social justice interests. We will examine how this connects us to one another, builds up the community and ultimately sustains us as God’s people. The theme of the weekend is “I am the Servant of the Lord”, the same as World Youth Day. We will examine the roots of our rich Catholic heritage of justice, learn what is happening in Canada on a national level, what is taking place at local levels, in particular in Kitchener/Waterloo region, and learn what is happening on campuses across Canada. The experience will be from January 26 to 28, 2019 and will include a visit to the Working Centre. Please contact Annette Donovan Panchaud to register. The deadline to register is January 16, 2019.

Conversations over the Fence: Creative Initiatives in Ecumenical and Inter-faith Relations

THURSDAY, JANUARY 17, 2019, 7:30 PM, KENNY THEATRE

FREE / ACCESSIBLE

Since the Second Vatican Council, we can say with confidence that dialogue is constitutive of the Church’s life in the world. Dialogue and relationship building takes many shapes, and some of those creative efforts, including receptive ecumenism, scriptural reasoning, dialogue with Indigenous spiritual traditions, and interfaith conversations in the sphere of culture.

Pope Francis appointed Bishop Bolen, as the eighth Archbishop of Regina, on Monday, July 11, 2016. Born in Gravelbourg, Saskatchewan, he studied English and Religious Studies at the University of Regina and theology at the University of Saint Paul in Ottawa, obtaining the License in Theology. He then transferred to Oxford University in England to further his studies in ecumenism and the documents of the “Anglican-Roman Catholic International Commission.” Archbishop Bolen is a Member of the Pontifical Council for the Promotion of Christian Unity, Co-Chair of the International Anglican-Roman Catholic Commission for Unity and Mission, and Co-Chair of the Joint International Commission for Dialogue between the World Methodist Council and the Catholic Church.
The place where we gather for worship and mission is situated on the traditional territories of the Anishinaabeg, Haudenosaunee, Lunaapeewak and Attawandaron peoples who have longstanding relationships to the land and region of southwestern Ontario and the City of London.

BLANKET EXERCISE: In 1996, the Aboriginal Rights Coalition worked with Indigenous elders and teachers to develop an interactive way of learning the history most Canadians are never taught. The Blanket Exercise was the result; it has since been offered thousands of times.

The Blanket Exercise is based on participatory popular education methodology and the goal is to build understanding about our shared history as Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada by walking through pre-contact, treaty-making, colonization and resistance. Everyone is actively involved as they step onto blankets that represent the land, and into the role of First Nations, Inuit and later Métis peoples.

Members of Christ the King University Parish are invited to join in this activity on Tuesday, January 22, 2019 from 6:30 pm – 9:30 pm in the Vitali Lounge of the Wemple Building. There is no fee but registration is required. There are already 30 participants and we are able to welcome 10 more.

To register, please contact Lisa.Caeiro@kings.uwo.ca or by calling 519.963.1477.
