Thus says God, the Lord, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people upon it and spirit to those who walk in it.

Isaiah 42.5

There is no separation, no conflict, no obstruction between the world and the Divine. All that exists is penetrated with divinity. Creation, matter, our bodies — everything is a vast incarnation or manifestation of Real Presence.

Sue Monk Kidd

God of love, we give thanks for your presence in creation. You are not a distant God, but one who knows us intimately. So we demolish borders, extend tables, and open our arms. For in doing so, we welcome you. Amen.

The theme chosen by the World Council of Churches this year is “Justice, and only justice, you shall pursue,” inspired by Deuteronomy 16:18-20. Bishop Linda Nicholl will preside. VERITAS SERIES FOR FAITH AND CULTURE

Sr. Teresa Maya, CCVI
Encounter as Bridging and Crossing
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2019, 7:30 PM, KENNY THEATRE
FREE / ACCESSIBLE

The Culture of Encounter is a multi-dimensional call. We are challenged to build bridges across all that divides humanity, but we are also encouraged to cross the bridges others have built. What are the competencies today’s Christians need to embrace in order to build and cross bridges?

Sr. Teresa Maya, CCVI is a member of the Congregation of the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio since 1994. Her ministry has been in education. She has served as teacher, history professor, and administrator. She has passion for the formation of ministers for Hispanics/Latinos in the United States. Sister Teresa has a B.A. from Yale University, an M.A. from the Graduate Theological Union at Berkeley and a Ph.D. from El Colegio de Mexico in Mexico City. She is currently serving as Congregational Leader for her Congregation and in the LCWR Presidency.
The place where we gather for worship and mission is situated on the traditional territories of the Anishinaabeg, Haudenosaunee, Lunaapeewak and Attawandaron peoples who have longstanding relationships to the land and region of southwestern Ontario and the City of London.

The eucharistic sacrifice nourishes and increases within us all that we have already received at Baptism, with its call to holiness, and this must be clearly evident from the way individual Christians live their lives. [T]he Christian laity, by virtue of their Baptism and Confirmation, and strengthened by the Eucharist, are called to live out the radical newness brought by Christ wherever they find themselves. They should cultivate a desire that the Eucharist have an ever-deeper effect on their daily lives, making them convincing witnesses in the workplace and in society at large.

Apostolic Exhortation on the Eucharist
Pope Benedict XVI, 2007, #79
