Today the Magi gaze in deep wonder at what they see:
Heaven on earth,
earth in heaven,
man in God,
God in man,
one whom the whole universe cannot contain
now enclosed in a tiny box.
as they look, they believe
and do not question,
as their symbolic gifts
bear witness:
incense for God,
gold for a king,
myrrh for one who is to die.

THANK YOU: Words of gratitude are extended to all those who came together to share their time, talents and treasures which shaped our liturgies for the Christmas Season. Again - your generosity was appreciated by those with whom we minister at the Hospitality Centre and the London Crisis Pregnancy Centre.

ST. JOSEPH’S HOSPITALITY CENTRE: Volunteers are needed for either the 5:00 to 7:00 PM or 7:00 to 9:00 PM shifts on Saturday, January 12, 2019 at the Hospitality Centre to serve, prepare food and play music. Donations of healthy snacks, baked goods (store-bought or home-baked), sandwiches, cheese and fruit are needed. Non-refrigerated foods can be dropped off Friday in Wemple room 139 and all other food can be dropped off at the Hospitality Centre at 5:15 PM on January 12, 2019. To volunteer or for more information, please contact Annette at 519-963-1477 or at annette.donovanpanchaud@kings.uwo.ca.

COMMUNITY MEALS: Our community meals following the 5:00 PM liturgy will continue in the new year. We warmly encourage parishioners to contribute to our potlucks, to consider sponsoring a meal ($500) or to join with another family to prepare a meal for those gathered. This offering is tax deductible. For more information, contact Annette at 519-963-1477 or at annette.donovanpanchaud@kings.uwo.ca. The meals will resume on January 13, 2019.

RECORDS UPDATE: In a few weeks, we will be preparing to send out receipts for income tax purposes. Please make sure that your mailing and e-mail addresses are up to date. If there are any doubts or concerns, please contact Lisa Caiero at 519-963-1477 or at lisa.caiero@kings.uwo.ca. It is our hope that, in the event of program cancellations, we will be able to contact members of the parish by e-mail or phone.

DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE: The Development and Peace Student Group at Kings University College will be resuming every Tuesday from 1:30 to 3:00 PM in KC218 on January 8, 2019. If you are interested in engaging in meaningful conversation about issues of social justice, understanding the role we play in effecting change in the world today, making a difference in people’s lives and building community, please contact Annette at annette.donovanpanchaud@kings.uwo.ca or 519-963-1477. We hope you will join us.

READING BETWEEN THE LINES: Our book study will resume Wednesday, January 9, 2019 at 7:00 PM in the Vitali Student Lounge. Once our current books are complete, we will begin reading “God Is Not Fair, and Other Reasons for Gratitude” written by Daniel Horan OFM.
IN MEMORY: Please remember in your prayers, Dorothy Blake, a resident at Windermere on The Mount and Barbara Wilde, mother of John Wilde, both of whom died in late December. May Barbara and Dorothy know the fullness of life in God's presence and may those who mourn her death find hope in the promise of resurrection.

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY: This year we have been invited by our Christian brothers and sisters in the London area to celebrate and pray for the gift of unity. This will take place on Wednesday, January 23, 2019 at 7:30 PM at St. Paul’s Cathedral (472 Richmond Street). The theme given by the World Council of Churches this year is “Justice, and only justice, you shall pursue,” inspired by Deuteronomy 16:18-20. Annette Donovan Panchaud will offer the reflection and our parish choir will lead the music at the prayer. A time of fellowship over refreshments will follow.

JUSTICE GENERATION is a weekend experience for post-secondary students that will deepen our understanding of Catholic Social Teaching and our own social justice interests. We will examine how this connects us to one another, builds up the community and ultimately sustains us as God's people. The theme of the weekend is “I am the Servant of the Lord”, the same as World Youth Day. We will examine the roots of our rich Catholic heritage of justice, learn what is happening in Canada on a national level, what is taking place at local levels, in particular in Kitchener/Waterloo region, and learn what is happening on campuses across Canada. The experience will be from January 26 to 28, 2019 and will include a visit to the Working Centre. Please contact Annette Donovan Panchaud to register. The deadline to register is January 16, 2019.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK: Sometimes courage does not show itself in the roar of a lion. Sometimes, it is the small voice at the end of the day that says, “I will try again tomorrow.” (author unknown)

Conversations over the Fence: Creative Initiatives in Ecumenical and Inter-faith Relations

THURSDAY, JANUARY 17, 2019, 7:30 PM, KENNY THEATRE

FREE / ACCESSIBLE

Since the Second Vatican Council, we can say with confidence that dialogue is constitutive of the Church’s life in the world. Dialogue and relationship building takes many shapes, and some of those creative efforts, including receptive ecumenism, scriptural reasoning, dialogue with Indigenous spiritual traditions, and interfaith conversations in the sphere of culture.

Pope Francis appointed Bishop Bolen, as the eighth Archbishop of Regina, on Monday, July 11, 2016. Born in Gravelbourg, Saskatchewan, he studied English and Religious Studies at the University of Regina and theology at the University of Saint Paul in Ottawa, obtaining the License in Theology. He then transferred to Oxford University in England to further his studies in ecumenism and the documents of the “Anglican-Roman Catholic International Commission.” Archbishop Bolen is a Member of the Pontifical Council for the Promotion of Christian Unity, Co-Chair of the International Anglican-Roman Catholic Commission for Unity and Mission, and Co-Chair of the Joint International Commission for Dialogue between the World Methodist Council and the Catholic Church.

Epiphany Carol

Ev’ry nation sees the glory of a star that pierced the night.
As we tell the wondrous story we are bathed in radiant light.
Star sent forth from highest heaven, dancing light of God’s design, Shine upon the gift that’s given: Word made flesh now born in time.

Ev’ry tongue shall sing the praises of his birth in deepest night.
He is healing for the ages; He is Christ, our God’s delight.
He proclaims within his being all our hopes, our great desires.
He shall die to rise, redeeming all who follow with their lives.

Once again may we discover word made flesh sent from above.
In our neighbor, sister, brother, in the lonely and unloved.
May we touch him, may we hold him, may we cradle him with care
As we learn to love each other, bringing hope from out despair.

Gather, God, the world together in the brightness of your day.
Fill our hearts with joy forever; help us walk the holy way.
May your justice rule the nations; may all people live as one.
Now we see our true salvation in the glory of your Son.
