In Flanders Fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders Fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch, be yours to hold it high.

If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders Fields.

“In Flanders Fields” was first published in England’s Punch magazine in December, 1915. Within months, this poem came to symbolize the sacrifices of all who were fighting in the First World War. Today, the poem continues to be a part of Remembrance Day ceremonies in Canada and other countries.

The poem was written by a Canadian - John McCrae, a doctor and teacher, who served in both the South African War and the First World War.

As our nation celebrates Remembrance Day, we continue to pray for peace in our world and in our hearts.

We pray for all victims of war, for members of our armed forces and for those involved in peace keeping missions. In particular, we pray for those who have made the ultimate sacrifice to ensure our freedom. The community will gather in front of the flag poles at King’s University College at 10:45 AM on Monday, November 11, 2019.

TABLE TO TABLE: Our next monthly parish pot luck will take place on November 17, 2019 following the 5:00PM mass. Please consider bringing items such as fruit, casseroles, salads, buns, food in crock pots and desert. Financial donations are also appreciated. Please contact Annette (annette.donovanpanchaud@kings.uwo.ca) or Maija (maija.wilson@kings.uwo.ca) or call 519-963-1477. We look forward to joining with you in this time of fellowship.

PRAYER ON THE WORLD DAY OF THE POOR: More than 40 international cities will be uniting around the sculpture Homeless Jesus in various events to honor World Day of the Poor on November 17, 2019. World Day of the Poor is intended to inspire people worldwide to greater service of the poor and marginalized. Please join us on November 17, 2019 at 8:00 PM at the Homeless Jesus Statue in front of the Cardinal Carter Library for an outdoor prayer service. Warm refreshments to follow in the Student Life Centre. For more information please contact Annette Donovan Panchaud at annette.donovanpanchaud@kings.uwo.ca or 519-963-1477.

REGISTRATION/ENVELOPES/AUTOMATIC WITHDRAWAL: We try to make sure that our databases are updated regularly, but in a community such as ours, people are always coming and going. If you have moved, please let us know so that we can update our records. If you are attending our community and would like to register, please contact the office for a registration form. If you would like to register for automatic withdrawal, we will gladly accept your generosity. For more information, please contact Lisa Caiero at lisa.caiero@kings.uwo.ca or call 519-963-1477.

FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING: Our patronal feast will be celebrated on Sunday November 24, 2019 at 10:00 AM. Please note that there will not be a 5:00 PM liturgy that afternoon. Bishop R.P. Fabbro, CSB will be the presider. To commemorate this feast, the children in the Sunday Children’s Program will lead the procession into the Chapel. If your children wish to participate, please have them arrive at 9:30 AM so that they might prepare for their role in the procession. Please contact Maija Wilson at maija.wilson@kings.uwo.ca with any questions. We will be joined by members of the King’s community. All are welcome downstairs, following the liturgy, for a reception.
CONGRATULATIONS are extended to Evan Younan, son of David and Dagnara Younan; and to Gracie Gallivan, daughter of Jason Gallivan and Toni Olivastri, as they celebrate their baptisms with us today. We pray Evan and Gracie grow in the wisdom and knowledge of the Lord and that their families provide them with a witness of God’s love throughout their lives.

CONGRATULATIONS are extended to the seven men ordained yesterday to the Order of Deacon for service in the Diocese of London.

UPCOMING MARRIAGES: In the coming months, the following couple will be celebrating the Sacrament of Marriage: Jonathan Kingwell & Kathleen McKee on December 28, 2019 May God strengthen them in faith and love.

WEDDING BANNS (Second Publication): Ehizele Omijie & Naomi Esume of our parish plan to be married in the Archdiocese of Lagos, Nigeria in January 2020. Anyone who knows any reason in law why they may not marry each other is required to declare it.

IN MEMORY: Please remember in your prayers, Paula Lenardon, daughter of Joan and the late Dante Lenardon, and cherished family member of Carmen Sprovieri, who died earlier this week. Please remember Emil Pietruszewski, in your prayers, son of Kris and Johanna, a fourth year student at King’s, who died tragically in a car accident last week. May Paula and Emil know the fullness of life in God’s presence and may those who mourn their death find hope in the promise of resurrection.

UPDATE – REFUGEE SPONSORSHIP INITIATIVE

We have committed to welcoming another family fleeing the conflict in Syria and our campaign target for their settlement is $30,000. To date, we have raised nearly $17,299.

Your generosity is, once again, a sign of our collective commitment to embody Christ’s words recorded in Matthew 25:31-46. Donations can be made by contributing through our online portal or through writing a cheque to Christ the King University Parish (MEMO: REFUGEE). Alternatively, you can call the office and speak with one of the team who will assist you in contributing to this project.

ANNUAL CHRIST THE KING LECTURE

DR. BRIAN FLANAGAN

Believing in a Holy and Sinful Church

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 2019, 7:00 PM, KENNY THEATRE

FREE / ACCESSIBLE

In the face of growing awareness of clerical sexual abuse and other systematic forms of malfeasance in the Catholic Church, many Catholics have swung from uncritical belief in the holiness of the Church to disappointed awareness of its deep sinfulness. Flanagan argues both sin and sanctity condition the nature of the Church until its fulfillment in the Reign of God. In our time and contexts, we need a more robust language of ecclesial sin in order to address our Church’s failings, and yet at the same time a sound ecclesiology will take account of a church that is sinful and holy.

Hymns for the Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

Gathering Hymn: CBW 613
Psalm: CBW 207
Gospel Acclamation: Mass of Christ the Savior
Meditation: I Know That My Redeemer Lives (S. Soper)
Preparation of Gifts: CBW 383
Acclamations: CS 2.3, 2.4, 2.5, 2.6
Communion Hymn: CBW 605

Northern Calendars: Last year, our parish offered Images of the Arctic, a calendar using photos taken by Bishop Jon Hansen CSSR of the Diocese of Mackenzie-Fort Smith, NWT. The calendars will be available again this year for $20. All the proceeds from this project will support the very basic needs in parishes of the northern missions. These calendars will be available at the back of The Chapel.

Ways to Celebrate the Holy Days

Step into Christmas is our Christmas initiative in conjunction with our outreach program at the St. Joseph’s Hospitality Centre. We invite you to fill shoeboxes with socks, gloves, hats, toiletries and other items for those who are in need. These boxes will be distributed to people during our December visit at the St. Joseph’s Hospitality Centre. Unwrapped shoeboxes can be left at the side altar under the statue of Mary between now and December 8, 2019.

Advent Drive for Young Families: Imagine what it would have been like for Mary and Joseph: to be young, in a foreign land and with no place to give birth. Then imagine what an honour it would be to provide them with necessary provisions and refuge. For Advent, our faith community will be welcoming donations of diapers, clothing, sleepers and other items needed for the care of infants. Please bring your unwrapped and new gifts to honour the Christ-Child. Donations can be left at the side altar under the statue of St. Joseph. Your gifts will be given to the London Crisis Pregnancy Centre, to assist families who struggle with the financial obligations of raising a child.

Ten Thousand Villages Sale: A fair trade store will be coming to King’s November 13 and 14, 2019 from 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM in the Student Life Centre. Come early to shop for Christmas gifts or for other occasions. Fair trade chocolate, coffee, tea, cards, decorations and other items will be available. For more information, contact Annette at annette.donovanpanchaud@kings.uwo.ca.

King’s Chamber Choir Christmas Concert: The King’s University College Chamber Choir will perform their Christmas concert, entitled “Christmas – A Soulful Celebration” on Saturday, November 30, 2019 at 7:30 PM in The Chapel at Windermere on the Mount. The choir will be joined by very special guest, jazz and gospel vocalist, Denise Pelley. Admission is by freewill donation, with proceeds going toward the Christ the King University Parish refugee sponsorship initiative. For more information, visit www.kings.uwo.ca/kuccc or call 519-963-1477.

The Advent Party is Back!: The Ninth Annual Advent Party will take place on Sunday, December 8, 2019 from 11:30 AM to 2:30 PM in the Parish Hall. Children ages 4 to 12 will take part in preparing for our Lord’s birth, by sharing food, making crafts, doing activities and reflecting on this time of the year. To register and indicate what items you would like to contribute to the pot-luck lunch, please contact Maija Wilson at maija.wilson@kings.uwo.ca by Wednesday, December 4, 2019.

We acknowledge that King’s University College is located on the traditional lands of the Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee, Lúnaapéewak and Attawandaron peoples, on lands connected with the London Township and Sombra Treaties of 1796 and the Dish with One Spoon Covenant Wampum. This land continues to be home to diverse Indigenous peoples whom we recognize as contemporary stewards of the land and vital contributors of our society.
