November 18, 2018 marks the second annual World Day of the Poor. Last year, Pope Francis suggested the Catholic Church set aside one day each year when communities can “reflect on how poverty is at the very heart of the Gospel.” He designated this day as the World Day of the Poor, and it will be celebrated on the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time each year. In this year’s World Day of the Poor message, Pope Francis reflects on Psalm 34:7, “This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him.” He challenges us to use the World Day of the Poor as an opportunity to make an examination of conscience and consider whether we truly do hear the cry of the poor.

Throughout salvation history, God answers the cries of the poor and shares in their suffering. His response is always a saving and healing act. In the World Day of the Poor, we join God in responding to the poor and ensuring our brothers and sisters in need do not feel alone or abandoned. Pope Francis says that to hear and respond to their cries, we must be in relationship and get to know people who are poor. He encourages parishes around the world to join in solidarity with people who are poor in their communities through a communal action, like praying together or sharing a meal.

Annual Christ the King Lecture

Joseph Cardinal Tobin, C.Ss.R.
Who is My Brother, and Sister and Mother?
WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 2018, 7:30 PM, KENNY THEATRE
FREE / ACCESSIBLE

The church community is not immune from the polarizing influence of politically populist, nationalist, and nativist language. Rooted in the primacy of human dignity, this talk will explore the Gospel imperative for inclusion of those marginalized because of sexual identity, immigration policies, political unrest, marital status, and religious affiliation. Is Pope Francis opening new paths for Catholic Christians and others?

Joseph Cardinal Tobin, C.Ss.R. was appointed as the Archbishop of Newark and created a Cardinal in 2016. He graduated from Mount Saint Alphonsus Seminary with an M.A., Religious Education and an M.A., Divinity (1977-79). Among other responsibilities, Cardinal Tobin serves as the Archbishop Secretary for the Congregation for Institutes of Consecrated Life and Societies of Apostolic Life. He also sits on the USCCB Administrative Committee, Catholic Education Committee, National Collections Committee, the Sub Committee on the Church in Africa, and the Committee on Clergy, Consecrated Life and Vocations. He is a member of the Joint International Commission for International Dialogue between the Catholic and Orthodox and Co-Chair, North American Catholic-Orthodox Theological Consultation.
CONGRATULATIONS are extended to Tessa Patterson, daughter of Michael and Jennifer Patterson, to Evelyn Ryan, daughter of Daniel and Christina Ryan, to Ryan Tracey, son of Andrew and Katie Tracey, and to Morgan Harris, daughter of Jeremy and Jessica Harris, as they celebrate their baptisms with us today. We pray Tessa, Evelyn, Ryan and Morgan grow in the wisdom and knowledge of the Lord and that their families provide them with a witness of God’s love throughout their lives.

ADVENT DRIVE FOR YOUNG FAMILIES: Imagine what it would have been like for Mary and Joseph: to be young, in a foreign land and with no place to give birth. Then imagine what an honour it would be to provide them with necessary provisions and refuge. For Advent, our faith community will be welcoming donations of diapers, clothing, sleepers and other items needed for the care of infants. Please bring your unwrapped and new gifts to honour the Christ-Child. Donations can be left at the side altar under the statue of St. Joseph. Your gifts will be given to the London Crisis Pregnancy Centre, to assist families who struggle with the financial obligations of raising a child.

TEN THOUSAND VILLAGES SALE: A fair trade store will be coming to King’s November 21 and 22, 2018 from 11:00 AM to 4:30 PM in the Student Life Centre. Come early to shop for Christmas gifts or for other occasions. Fair trade chocolate, coffee, tea, cards, decorations and other items will be available.
