Finally, all of you, have unity of spirit, sympathy, love for you another, a tender heart, and a humble mind.

1 Peter 3.8

Compassion asks us to go where it hurts, to enter into places of pain, to share in brokenness, fear, confusion, and anguish. Compassion challenges us to cry out with those in misery, to mourn with those who are lonely, to weep with those in tears.

Father Henri Nouwen

Holy God, this world feels heavy with grief. We mourn for lives cut short by hatred, for families seeking refuge only to be met with hostility, for those told that they are unwanted by the nation that they call home. We pray that your compassion and mercy would cover our world and the veil of ignorance would be lifted, so that we may all see each other as you do—beloved, cherished, and so loved. Amen.

VERITAS SERIES FOR FAITH AND CULTURE
Annual Christ the King Lecture
Joseph Cardinal Tobin, C.Ss.R.
Who is My Brother, and Sister and Mother?
WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 2018, 7:30 pm, KENNY THEATRE
FREE / ACCESSIBLE

The church community is not immune from the polarizing influence of politically populist, nationalist, and nativist language. Rooted in the primacy of human dignity, this talk will explore the Gospel imperative for inclusion of those marginalized because of sexual identity, immigration policies, political unrest, marital status, and religious affiliation. Is Pope Francis opening new paths for Catholic Christians and others?

Joseph Cardinal Tobin, C.Ss.R. was appointed as the Archbishop of Newark and created a Cardinal in 2016. He graduated from Mount Saint Alphonsus Seminary with an M.A., Religious Education and an M.A., Divinity (1977-79). Among other responsibilities, Cardinal Tobin serves as the Archbishop Secretary for the Congregation for Institutes of Consecrated Life and Societies of Apostolic Life. He also sits on the USCCB Administrative Committee, Catholic Education Committee, National Collections Committee, the Subcommittee on the Church in Africa, and the Committee on Clergy, Consecrated Life and Vocations. He is a member of the Joint International Commission for International Dialogue between the Catholic and Orthodox and Co-Chair, North American Catholic-Orthodox Theological Consultation.

NORTHERN CALENDARS: Last year, our parish sold IMAGES OF THE ARCTIC, a calendar using photos taken by Bishop Jon Hansen CSSR of the Diocese of Mackenzie-Fort Smith, NWT. The calendars will be available again this year for $20. All the proceeds from this project will support the very basic needs of parishes of the northern missions. These calendars will be available at the back of The Chapel in November. To reserve your calendar(s), please contact Lisa Caeiro in the parish office.

AMABILE BOYS AND MENS CHOIRS present “In Remembrance,” a concert of Canadian courage, heroism, and resilience on Sunday, November 11, 2018 at 3:00 PM at St. Peter’s Cathedral Basilica. “Christian, remember your dignity, and now that you share in God’s own nature, do not return by sin to your former base condition. Bear in mind who is your head and of whose body you are a member. Do not forget that you have been rescued from the power of darkness and brought into the light of God’s kingdom.

Through the sacrament of baptism you have become a temple of the Holy Spirit. Do not drive away so great a guest by evil conduct and become again a slave to the devil, for your liberty was bought by the blood of Christ.”

St. Leo the Great (Bishop of Rome) +10 November 461 CE
