Do not be afraid.

Do not be satisfied with mediocrity.

Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch.

UPDATE – REFUGEE SPONSORSHIP INITIATIVE

We have committed to welcoming another family fleeing the conflict in Syria and our campaign target for their settlement is $30,000. To date, we have raised nearly $14,832.

Your generosity is, once again, a sign of our collective commitment to embody Christ’s words recorded in Matthew 25:31-46. Donations can be made by contributing through our online portal or through writing a cheque to Christ the King University Parish (MEMO: REFUGEE). Alternatively, you can call the office and speak with one of the team who will assist you in contributing to this project.

Gratefully,

Michael Bechard (Rev.)

SCRIPTURE STUDY: A number of community members have expressed a deeper desire to spend more time in scripture. To this end, we have created two groups that are open to everyone (students to seniors). ANNUAL CHRIST THE KING LECTURE

DR. BRIAN FLANAGAN

Believing in a Holy and Sinful Church

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 2019, 7:00 PM, KENNY THEATRE

FREE / ACCESSIBLE

In the face of growing awareness of clerical sexual abuse and other systematic forms of malfeasance in the Catholic Church, many Catholics have swung from uncritical belief in the holiness of the Church to disappointed awareness of its deep sinfulness. Flanagan argues both sin and sanctity condition the nature of the Church until its fulfillment in the Reign of God. In our time and contexts, we need a more robust language of ecclesial sin in order to address our Church’s failings, and yet at the same time a sound ecclesiology will take account of a church that is sinful and holy.

Psalm 121

Our help is from the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth.

Francis Patrick O’Brien

We acknowledge that King’s University College is located on the traditional lands of the Anishinaabek, Haudenosaunee, Lūnaapēcwak and Attawandaron peoples, on lands connected with the London Township and Somba Treaties of 1796 and the Dish with One Spoon Covenant Wampum. This land continues to be home to diverse Indigenous peoples whom we recognize as contemporary stewards of the land and vital contributors of our society.
