A number of common ways of picturing the saints are misconceived. For example, people picture the saints with haloes round their heads, enshrined above an altar or during the glory of their canonization. The reality is that the saints are among us.

Again, we frequently tend to look on the saints as super-beings, exempt from the burdens of the common lot of mortals by the power of miracles and their extraordinary spiritual force and vitality.

If we look at them closely, however, we can see that their faults of character were not always fully overcome or banished, that their passions remained, though harnessed in the service of their holiness. In fact, holiness itself is, in one sense, a converted passion! Brought under the direction of our divine vocation this passion brings about a real change of life and outlook – the fruits of grace and freedom.

VERITAS SERIES FOR FAITH AND CULTURE

Annual Christ the King Lecture

Joseph Cardinal Tobin, C.Ss.R.
Who is My Brother, and Sister and Mother?
WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 2018, 7:30 pm, KENNY THEATRE
FREE / ACCESSIBLE

The church community is not immune from the polarizing influence of politically populist, nationalist, an nativist language. Rooted in the primacy of human dignity, this talk will explore the Gospel imperative for inclusion of those marginalized because of sexual identity, immigration policies, political unrest, marital status, and religious affiliation. Is Pope Francis opening new paths for Catholic Christians and others?

Joseph Cardinal Tobin, C.Ss.R. was appointed as the Archbishop of Newark and created a Cardinal in 2016. He graduated from Mount Saint Alphonsus Seminary with an M.A., Religious Education and an M.A., Divinity (1977-79). Among other responsibilities, Cardinal Tobin serves as the Archbishop Secretary for the Congregation for Institutes of Consecrated Life and Societies of Apostolic Life. He also sits on the USCCB Administrative Committee, Catholic Education Committee, National Collections Committee, the Sub Committee on the Church in Africa, and the Committee on Clergy, Consecrated Life and Vocations. He is a member of the Joint International Commission for International Dialogue between the Catholic and Orthodox and Co-Chair, North American Catholic-Orthodox Theological Consultation.
The place where we gather for worship and mission is situated on the traditional territories of the Anishinaabeg, Haudenosaunee, Lunaapeewak and Attawandaron peoples who have longstanding relationships to the land and region of southwestern Ontario and the City of London.

In faith, we still declare that we shall live, yet in the hope of the Resurrection, when we will be new creations of God in Christ. Nineteenth-century theologian Cardinal John Henry Newman’s famous prayer sums up this Christian hope in great beauty and with firm faith:

O Lord, support us all the day long,
until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes,
and the busy world is hushed,
and the fever of life is over and the work is done.
Then, Lord, in Thy mercy,
grant us a safe lodging,
and a holy rest and peace at last;
Through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.
