DR. PHYLLIS ZAGANO

Catholic Women, Catholic Church: Where Do We Go From Here?

Many Catholic women, the mainstays of Catholic pastoral ministry, are increasingly frustrated by the Church's response to requests for increased professional presence of women in ministry.

Dr. Phyllis Zagano is an internationally acclaimed Catholic scholar who has lectured throughout the United States, Canada, Europe and Australia. She has received many awards and her groundbreaking work on women in the diaconate led to her appointment to the Pontifical Commission for the Study of the Diaconate of Women in 2016. Dr. Zagano currently holds a research appointment at Hofstra University, Hempstead, New York.
