Use this space to create a pretend social media post with the hashtag #goodshepherd

Where in the world can we see that Jesus is taking care of us? What does that look like?
Is it through a person in your life?
A place that is beautiful to you?
A wonderful meal?
You can choose a photo, some artwork, a video, a quote, or something that you wrote.

If you want, you can ask a parent for help posting it on facebook/instagram/twitter/snapchat or any other media platform.

The Fourth Sunday of Easter

This Weeks Edition: Jesus takes care of us

Use your finger to trace over the word as you say a prayer to Jesus, the good shepherd. Sometimes having something to do with your hand can make it easier to focus on prayer.
Gospel: John 10:11-16

Jesus said to his disciples: “I am the good shepherd, and the good shepherd gives up his life for his sheep.

“Hired workers are not like the shepherd. They don’t own the sheep, and when they see a wolf coming, they run off and leave the sheep. Then the wolf attacks and scatters the flock.

“Hired workers run away because they don’t care about the sheep.

“I am the good shepherd. I know my sheep, and they know me. Just as the Father knows me, I know the Father, and I give up my life for my sheep.

“I have other sheep that are not in this sheep pen. I must bring them together too, when they hear my voice. Then there will be one flock of sheep and one shepherd.”

Exploring the bible

In today’s gospel, Jesus describes himself the good shepherd.
Do you remember anywhere else in the bible does that mentions a shepherd?

Use your bible to help you find these other passages.
