Pentecost Sunday

This Weeks Edition: Receive the Holy Spirit!

Symbols of the Holy Spirit
There are many symbols of the Holy Spirit. Draw each one and see if you can find pictures of them in the church around you.

The disciples were afraid of the Jewish leaders, and on the evening of that same Sunday they locked themselves in a room. Suddenly, Jesus appeared in the middle of the group. He greeted them and showed them his hands and his side. When the disciples saw the Lord, they became very happy.

After Jesus had greeted them again, he said, “I am sending you, just as the Father has sent me.” Then he breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive anyone’s sins, they will be forgiven. But if you don’t forgive their sins, they will not be forgiven.”

I wonder why Jesus still has wounds in his side and hands even though he is risen from the dead.

I wonder how it would feel to have Jesus appear to you.

I wonder how the Apostles received the Holy Spirit.

Praying to the Holy Spirit

It's important to develop a relationship with all three persons of the Trinity because there is so much to learn from each!

One way that some people like to pray to the Holy Spirit is through music.

Make yourself a quiet place.
Get comfortable and listen to the songs.
As you listen, try to get rid of any thoughts that pop into your head that are not about God.
If you are having trouble focusing, concentrate on the words to the song or repeat “Come Holy Spirit”.
Ask the Holy Spirit if she has anything to say to you.
Finish with the sign of the cross

Here are some songs to use to pray:
