

King's University College

Canadian High School Admission Requirements

Province	Arts / Social Science Childhood & Youth Studies, Disability Studies, Human Rights Studies Social Justice & Peace Studies, Thantology	Bachelor of Management and Organizational Studies (BMOS)
Alberta, Northwest Territories, and Nunavut	Five acceptable academic courses numbered 30, including:  English Language Arts 30-1	Five acceptable academic courses numbered 30, including:  English Language Arts 30-1 and Math (Any)
British Columbia and Yukon Territory	Five acceptable academic courses numbered 12, including:  English 12 or English First Peoples 12	Five acceptable academic courses numbered 12 including:  English 12 or English First Peoples 12 and Math (Any)
Manitoba	Five acceptable academic courses numbered 40, including:  English 40S	Five acceptable academic courses numbered 40, including:  English 40S and Math (Any)
New Brunswick	Five acceptable academic courses at the grade 12 level, including:  English 121	Five acceptable academic courses at the grade 12 level, including:  English 121 or 122 and Math (Any)
Newfoundland and Labrador	Ten credits from the acceptable academic courses number 3000 or above, including:  Two credits in English 3201	Ten credits from the acceptable academic courses number 3000 or above, including:  Two credits in English 3201 and Math (any)
Nova Scotia	Five acceptable academic courses numbered 12 including:  English 12	Five acceptable academic courses numbered 12 including:  English 12 and Math (any)
Ontario	Six 4U/M level courses, including:  ENG4U	Six 4U/M level courses, including:  ENG4U and Two math courses, (MDM4U, MCV4U, or MHF4U)
Prince Edward Island	Five acceptable academic courses numbered 12, including:  English 621	Five acceptable academic courses numbered 12, including:  English 621 and Math (Any)
Quebec	Six academic grade 12 courses, including:  English	Six academic grade 12 courses, including:  English and Math (Any)
Saskatchewan	Five acceptable academic courses at the grade 12 level, including:  English Language Arts A30 and B30	Five acceptable academic courses at the grade 12 level, including:  English Language Arts A30 and B30 and Math (Any)

* Calculus is a recommended course for students pursuing the Bachelor of Management and Organizational Studies (BMOS). A Grade 12 Calculus course (or a university-level Calculus course) is required to enroll in certain mandatory upper-year Economics and MOS courses. If you have not completed Grade 12 Calculus, you may need to upgrade by taking King's Math 0110 course.